STUDENT RESEARCH & PRACTICE SYMPOSIUM ON COMPUTATIONAL THINKING
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 2013, 10AM – 4PM

WHO AND WHAT
The Student CT Symposium will bring together students, college faculty, and industry representatives to discuss current research, practices and projects involving CT as they relates to opportunities for internships and jobs.

LEARN what scientists and educators are saying about the role Computational Thinking (CT) will play in shaping the future workplace.

APPLY for CT internships and job opportunities that are available NOW with industry representatives.

DIALOGUE with CT experts and CT employers about your career plan.

MEET and interact with students from all over New Mexico who share your interest in CT.

CALL FOR POSTERS!
The Poster Competition offers you an opportunity to share your recently completed or ongoing research in CT, or your workplace experience involving CT. Students whose submissions are accepted by the sponsors of the symposium will have their posters evaluated by a panel of academic and industry judges. Winners of the competition will be awarded cash prizes.
