The Future Space Leaders Foundation (FSLF) is pleased to announce the 2015 Future Space Leaders Grant Program providing opportunities for U.S. graduate students and young professionals pursuing space- and satellite-related careers to participate in the 66th International Astronautical Congress (IAC) in Jerusalem, Israel, October 12 – October 16, 2015. In addition to the IAC, the grantees will be able to choose to attend for a whole year a number of major space-related symposia and conferences including AAS Goddard Memorial Symposium, SGAC Space Congress, NSC Goddard Dinner, Satellite 2015, Space Symposium, SSPI Gala, AIAA Spotlight Awards and ISPCS among others.

U.S. graduate students and young professionals between the ages of 21 and 35 as of January 1, 2015, are encouraged to apply.

grant application & info
futurespaceleaders.org/grants.html

APPLICATION DEADLINE MAY 15
JUNE 15 AWARDS ANNOUNCED

On July 16, 2015, the Future Space Leaders Foundation will host the 4th annual Future Space event in the Hart Senate Office Building on Capitol Hill, exploring cutting edge technologies and brave new applications poised to transform the space and satellite industry. During this main fundraising event, Future Space 2015 will provide networking opportunities for graduate students and young professionals pursuing careers in the space and satellite industry.