Class Policy:

Unless there is an extreme medical emergency or critical circumstances, supported by official full documentations that is approved by the instructor:

1) Late assignments (homework/programs) will be not be accepted.
2) Requests for rearrangements of missing exams/quizzes (mid/final), e.g., shifting grades, rescheduling, etc, will be denied.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism will never be tolerated; any student who copies solutions of class assignments/exams/quizzes from another person will be subject to failing the class; and possibly facing more school disciplinary action as described in New Mexico Tech student handbook (available at the Student Services office). Any use of external material in any of your class required reports MUST be properly cited, with full reference to the original literature source.
