CAHSI Local REU Program (Research Experiences for Undergraduates)

Why join us?

- Build your knowledge, skills, and abilities in the computing field
- Engage in impactful research projects and professional development activities
- Receive a stipend. The stipend rates are set by the CAHSI regions.

Eligibility

- Must be enrolled in a computing program at a CAHSI institution
- Must have completed Data Structures
- Must not be employed for more than 10 hours per week in any other position
- Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Preference will be given to students from groups underrepresented in computing (African Americans/Blacks, Hispanics/Latinx, Native Americans/ Alaskan Natives, females)

The CAHSI LREU student application opens on August 14, 2024.

No prior research experience is required. The student's research area interests/project preferences are used to match the student to a faculty mentor.
